

Biography – Eng. Nuno da Penha Coutinho
Head of OGMA Institutional Affairs

Born in 1968, in Portugal.

Holds a Degree in Mechanical Engineering and has complementary studies in Industrial Management and Leadership.

Has more than 28 years of experience in the Aerospace Industry, mainly in the roles of Program Management and Business Development Management.

Over these years, as Program Manager, has been involved in more than ten products industrializations, working either on a weak matrix environment or leading an integrated project team. As Business Development Manager, negotiated and closed contracts expanding the company's portfolio of products and customers.

In the last three years led the Sales & Business Development area for the Defense Aviation maintenance business.

In March 2023, Nuno was appointed as Head of OGMA Institutional Affairs Department.

